Lodge of the J. O. U. A. M. and met many delegates from all over the State, and being from Lawrence county, at attracted attention of many delegates, who informed me that they knew our fellow-townsmen, Hon. G. W. Castle, who they said has visited their county as assistant State Inspector and examined the various county officers.

Each one expressed delight to tell me that they knew Mr. Castle and spoke about him in the very highest praise and as an efficient officer, dealing even justice to officers and the State. They expressed a strong desire that Mr. Castle should return to his county again. I was glad to have the opportunity to tell them all of the high character and standing of Mr. Castle
